Re: St John Macomb Class Action

Dear St. John Macomb Class Members,

We wanted to update you as to the status of your class action.

As they unsuccessfully did in the prior two class actions, St. John has asked the Court to dismiss the case. We submitted our response to the Court explaining to the judge why the case should move forward. The Court held a hearing last month to hear arguments from both St. John and us. The judge at the hearing did not decide whether the case could proceed but did let us know that he would likely make a decision sometime in the next month. We will share his ruling with you when we receive it.

If the judge does allow the case to move ahead, the Court will set a trial date for a jury to consider the case. We anticipate that the trial would take place before the end of the year.

We will continue to keep you informed through postings on our website (www.sterlingattorneys.com) as the events unfold. We encourage you to pass on this information to other class members.

Very truly yours,

STERLING ATTORNEYS AT LAW, P.C.
