Re: St John Providence Class Action

Dear St. John Providence Class Members,

As you are aware, the Court has approved our settlement with St. John. The hospital had until February 15, 2013 to reinstate your excess banks or to send you payment if you were eligible.

We are happy to report that it appears that most of you have received your reinstatement letter or payment. Please be sure to keep your reinstatement letter in a secure place.

If you have not received a letter or payment but believe that you were eligible for reinstatement or payment under the settlement, please feel free to contact us to address the situation. In a settlement this large, there are often wrinkles that need to be worked out.

Very truly yours,
